ANY REPRESENTATION TO THE CONTRARY IS A CRIMINAL OFFENSE.

IN MAKING AN INVESTMENT DECISION INVESTORS MUST RELY ON THEIR OWN EXAMINATION OF THE ISSUER AND THE TERMS OF THE OFFERING, INCLUDING THE DISCLOSURES, MERITS AND RISKS INVOLVED.

THIS OFFER IS SUBJECT TO CERTAIN RISK FACTORS DESCRIBED HEREIN BEGINNING ON PAGE 7.

The following investment obligations are offered by the Program under the terms described in “Description of Notes” beginning on page 22 (minimum investment is $100):

Fixed Rate Term Note - A note with an interest rate that remains fixed throughout its term, with available terms of any period from six (6) to sixty (60) months.

Interest rates on all investment obligations, except Denominational Accounts, offered by the Program are established for each type and term according to a procedure set forth under “Description of Notes” beginning on page 22. The Program reserves the right to change the method by which interest is determined or the frequency with which interest is paid to the Investor or added to the Notes. See “Description of Notes.”

NOTE: Investments offered by the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) Investment and Loan Program, Inc. are not bank deposits or obligations and are not insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC), the Securities Investor Protection Corporation (SIPC) or any other federal or state agency.

This Offering Circular is dated May 1, 2025.

The aggregate amount of the Notes being offered may be sold in any one or more of the offered categories.

This offering is not underwritten and no commission or discounts will be paid or provided by the Program in connection with the sale of Notes. The Program will receive 100% of the proceeds from the sale of the Notes. The Program will bear all expenses, including securities registration fees, printing, mailing, accounting fees and attorneys' fees, incurred in this offering which are estimated to be $52,000.

No sinking fund or trust indenture will be used by the Program in conjunction with the issuance of the Notes. Investors must rely solely upon the financial condition of the Program for repayment of the Notes. The Notes are unsecured debts of the Program and are of equal priority with all other current indebtedness of the Program. The Program reserves the right to issue future obligations or obtain a line of credit secured by a first lien on its assets. The Program will not create, incur, or voluntarily permit any material lien upon any of its assets or otherwise incur material indebtedness having a prior claim to its assets or otherwise senior to the Notes. The term "material," as used in this paragraph, shall mean an amount which exceeds ten percent (10%) of the tangible assets (total assets less intangible assets as defined by U.S. GAAP as hereinafter defined) of the Program. The Notes are non-negotiable and may be assigned only upon the Program's prior written consent.

THE NOTES ARE NOT SAVINGS OR DEPOSIT ACCOUNTS OR OTHER OBLIGATIONS OF A BANK AND ARE NOT INSURED BY THE FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION (FDIC), THE SECURITIES INVESTOR PROTECTION CORPORATION (SIPC), ANY STATE BANK OR INSURANCE FUND OR ANY OTHER GOVERNMENTAL AGENCY. THE PAYMENT OF PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST TO AN INVESTOR IN THE NOTES IS DEPENDENT UPON THE ISSUER'S FINANCIAL CONDITION. ANY PROSPECTIVE INVESTOR IS ENTITLED TO REVIEW THE ISSUER'S FINANCIAL STATEMENTS, WHICH SHALL BE FURNISHED AT ANY TIME DURING BUSINESS HOURS UPON REQUEST. THE NOTES ARE NOT OBLIGATIONS OF, NOR GUARANTEED BY, THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH (U.S.A.), THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH (U.S.A.) OR ITS RELATED CORPORATIONS, PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH (U.S.A.), A CORPORATION, OR BY ANY CHURCH, SYNOD, PRESBYTERY, INSTITUTION OR AGENCY AFFILIATED WITH THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH (U.S.A.) (EXCEPT FOR THE ISSUER).

THE OFFER AND SALE OF THE NOTES IS LIMITED TO: (i) PERSONS (INCLUDING ENTITIES OR ARRANGEMENTS CONTROLLED BY, OWNED BY, OR EXISTING FOR THE BENEFIT OF SUCH PERSONS) WHO, PRIOR TO RECEIPT OF THIS OFFERING CIRCULAR, ARE MEMBERS OF, CONTRIBUTORS TO, OR PARTICIPANTS IN THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH (U.S.A.), THE PROGRAM, OR ANY PROGRAM, ACTIVITY OR ORGANIZATION WHICH CONSTITUTES A PART OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH (U.S.A.) (INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY, SYNODS, PRESBYTERIES, AND CONGREGATIONS OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH (U.S.A.)), OR IN ANY RELIGIOUS ORGANIZATION THAT HAS A PROGRAMMATIC RELATIONSHIP WITH ANY OF THE FOREGOING, (ii) CONGREGATIONS AND SESSIONS OF CONGREGATIONS AFFILIATED WITH, AND RELIGIOUS ORGANIZATIONS THAT HAVE A PROGRAMMATIC RELATIONSHIP WITH, THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH (U.S.A.) (INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY, SYNODS, PRESBYTERIES, AND CONGREGATIONS OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH (U.S.A.)) OR THE PROGRAM, OR (iii) ANY ANCESTOR, DESCENDANT OR SUCCESSOR IN INTEREST OF PERSONS DESCRIBED IN (i) AND (ii) ABOVE WHEN SUCH ANCESTOR, DESCENDANT OR SUCCESSOR IN INTEREST WOULD ONLY BE RENEWING A NOTE RECEIVED FROM OR ATTRIBUTABLE TO A NOTE RECEIVED FROM SUCH A PERSON.

NO PERSON HAS BEEN AUTHORIZED TO GIVE ANY INFORMATION OR TO MAKE ANY REPRESENTATION IN CONNECTION WITH THIS OFFERING OTHER THAN THOSE CONTAINED IN THIS OFFERING CIRCULAR AND, IF GIVEN OR MADE, SUCH INFORMATION OR REPRESENTATION MUST NOT BE RELIED ON AS HAVING BEEN MADE OR AUTHORIZED BY THE PROGRAM.

THESE SECURITIES ARE ISSUED PURSUANT TO A CLAIM OF EXEMPTION FROM REGISTRATION UNDER SECTION 3(a)(4) OF THE FEDERAL SECURITIES ACT OF 1933. A REGISTRATION STATEMENT RELATING TO THESE SECURITIES HAS NOT BEEN FILED WITH THE UNITED STATES SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION.

THESE SECURITIES ARE SUBJECT TO RESTRICTIONS ON TRANSFERABILITY AND RESALE AND MAY NOT BE TRANSFERRED OR RESOLD EXCEPT WITH THE PROGRAM'S WRITTEN CONSENT AND AS PERMITTED UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED, AND THE APPLICABLE STATE SECURITIES LAWS, PURSUANT TO REGISTRATION OR EXEMPTION THEREFROM.

INVESTORS ARE ENCOURAGED TO CONSIDER THE CONCEPT OF INVESTMENT DIVERSIFICATION WHEN DETERMINING THE AMOUNT OF NOTES THAT WOULD BE APPROPRIATE FOR THEM IN RELATION TO THEIR OVERALL INVESTMENT PORTFOLIO AND PERSONAL FINANCIAL NEEDS.

THE FOREGOING STATEMENTS AND CERTAIN OTHER PORTIONS OF THIS OFFERING CIRCULAR ARE USED BECAUSE STATE LAW REQUIRES SUCH OF ALL ISSUERS OF SECURITIES, AND THE LANGUAGE USED IS GENERALLY SIMILAR TO THAT USED BY ALL ISSUERS.

FORWARD LOOKING STATEMENTS

Investment in the securities to be issued by the Program involves certain risks. Prospective Investors are encouraged to review all the materials contained in this Offering Circular and to consult their own attorneys and financial advisors.

This Offering Circular includes “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the federal and state securities laws. Statements about the Program and its expected financial position, business and financing plans are forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements can be identified by, among other things, the use of forward-looking terminology such as “believes,” “expects,” “may,” “will,” “should,” “seeks,” “pro forma,” “anticipates,” “intends,” “projects,” or other variations or comparable terminology, or by discussions of strategy or intentions. Although the Program believes that the expectations reflected in its forward-looking statements are reasonable, the Program cannot assure any Investor that the Program’s expectations will prove to be correct. Forward-looking statements are necessarily dependent upon assumptions, estimates and data that may be incorrect or imprecise and involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors. Accordingly, prospective Investors should not consider the Program’s forward-looking statements as predictions of future events or circumstances. A number of factors could cause the Program’s actual results, performance, achievements or industry results to be materially different from any future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by the Program’s forward-looking statements. These factors include, but are not limited to: changes in economic conditions in general and in the Program’s business; changes in prevailing interest rates and the availability of and terms of financing to fund the Program’s business; changes in the Program’s capital expenditure plans; and other factors discussed in this Offering Circular. Given these uncertainties, prospective Investors should not rely on the Program’s forward-looking statements in making an investment decision. The Program disclaims any obligation to update Investors on any factors that may affect the likelihood of realization of the Program’s expectations. All written and oral forward-looking statements attributable to the Program, including statements before and after the date of this Offering Circular, are deemed to be supplements to this Offering Circular and are incorporated herein and are expressly qualified by these cautionary statements.

Although the Program believes that the forward-looking statements are reasonable, prospective Investors should not place undue reliance on any forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date made. Prospective Investors should understand that the factors discussed under “RISK FACTORS” could affect the Program’s future results and performance. This could cause those results to differ materially from those expressed in the forward-looking statements.

SUMMARY OF OFFERING

The following is a summary of the Program’s offering and contains only selected information. This summary does not contain all of the information that a potential Investor should consider before investing. The information provided in this summary should be read in conjunction with the detailed information contained in this Offering Circular, including the Program’s audited financial statements.

1. The Program may issue up to One Hundred Fifty Million Dollars ($150,000,000) of its Notes throughout the fifty (50) states, the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico during the 12-month period ending April 30, 2026. This amount may be issued in any one or more of the types of Notes provided that no more than Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($500,000) of new Term Notes only will be issued in the State of Washington.
2. The Program is a Pennsylvania nonprofit corporation and is exempt from federal income taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and is not a “private foundation.”
3. The Program offers and sells Notes to Investors to make funds available for Loans for Church Development Activities.
4. Notes offered pursuant to this Offering Circular bear a fixed or variable rate of interest and have maturities ranging from six (6) months to sixty (60) months (except in the case of Mission Market Fund Notes which are demand obligations).
5. Interest payable on Notes is taxable to the Investor, except when such Notes are held in an IRA, in the year in which such interest is paid or credited.
6. At maturity, unless the Investor elects to redeem a Note, such Note will automatically renew for a term equal to the prior term at the then current interest rate for such Note.
7. The Program’s loan portfolio consists of Loans made to congregations, governing bodies, and other qualifying Related Entities. The ability of each borrowing congregation to repay its Loan generally depends upon the contributions received from its members. The number of members of each congregation and its revenue is likely to fluctuate. The Program must rely on the borrower’s or guarantor’s continued financial viability for repayment of Loans. If a borrower or guarantor experiences a decrease in contributions or revenues, payments on that Loan may be adversely affected. Generally, Presbyteries, and in some cases Synods, are either co-obligors or guarantors on Loans made to particular churches and other qualifying Related Entities.
8. The Program will use the proceeds from the sale of its Notes to carry on Church Development Activities by making Loans to congregations, governing bodies, and other Related Entities. Any Note proceeds not used as described above will be invested pursuant to the Program’s investment policies. Any such Invested Funds invested in readily marketable securities are subject to various market risks which may result in losses if market values of investments decline.

9. Below is a summary in tabular form of certain selected financial data with respect to the Program’s operations for its most recent fiscal year. This data has been compiled by management from the Program’s audited financial statements, and it should be read in conjunction with the most recent audited financial statements of the Program which begin on page 33.

RISK FACTORS

1. Unsecured and Uninsured General Obligations. The Notes are general obligations of the Program, a nonprofit corporation formed July 31, 1995. Investors are dependent solely upon the financial condition of the Program for repayment of principal and interest on the Notes. The Notes are unsecured and are not insured.

2. No Sinking Fund or Trust Indenture. No sinking fund or trust indenture has been or will be established. The absence of a sinking fund and trust indenture may adversely affect the Program’s ability to repay the Notes.

3. Senior Secured Indebtedness. The Program currently has not issued any secured obligations and, therefore, the Notes are of equal priority with all other current indebtedness of the Program. However, the Program reserves the right to issue future obligations, or obtain a line of credit, secured by a first lien on its assets in an amount not to exceed ten percent (10%) of the tangible assets of the Program (total assets less intangible assets as defined by U.S. GAAP). If the Program does incur any senior secured indebtedness, then repayment of such indebtedness will have priority in the Program’s assets over all other unsecured creditors of the Program, including Investors. The Program currently has a $3,000,000 unsecured line of credit from PNC Bank, N.A., and, as of December 31, 2024, the Program had no outstanding balance on the line of credit.

4. No Public Market for Notes. No public market exists for the Notes and none will develop. Therefore, Investors should consider the purchase of a Note as an investment for the full term of the Note.

5. Liquidity. It is the Program’s practice to maintain at all times an aggregate operating and reserve liquidity of cash, cash equivalents, readily marketable securities and immediately available funds through a line of credit, equal to at least 8% of the Program’s principal balance of all outstanding Notes and Denominational Accounts. In 2024 the Program maintained, and plans to continue to maintain in 2025, cash and Invested Funds in an amount equal to or in excess of this practice. There can be no assurance, however, that such practice will be continued in the future. The current investment policy of the Program restricts Invested Funds to obligations of the U.S. Government and U.S. Agencies, Certificates of Deposit (CD’s), Corporate Issues rated A or better, Commercial Paper rated A-1 or A-2, Variable Rate Demand Notes, Money Market funds or comparable investment vehicles with like investments, Domestic Equities, Non-U.S. Equities, and some Alternatives. Any such Invested Funds are subject to various market and liquidity risks which may result in losses if market values of investments decline, and a material decline in market value of such investments, or a material inability to liquidate certain Invested Funds, may affect the Program’s ability to pay its Note obligations.

6. No Guarantee of Future Offerings. There can be no assurance that the Program will continue to offer and sell Notes in the future. See “Financing and Operational Activities.”

7. Tax Consequences. Investors will not receive a charitable deduction upon the purchase of a Note, and interest paid or payable on the Notes will be taxable as ordinary income to an Investor regardless of whether the interest is paid directly to the Investor or retained and compounded. If interest paid is below the market rate of interest, the Internal Revenue Service may impute income up to the market interest rate level. The Internal Revenue Service may exempt loans, including gift loans to charitable organizations, if the amount does not exceed $250,000. See “Tax Aspects.”

8. Loan Collection Risks. The Program’s loan portfolio consists of Loans made to congregations, governing bodies, and other qualifying Related Entities. The ability of each borrowing congregation to repay its Loan generally depends upon the contributions received from its members. The number of members of each congregation and its revenue is likely to fluctuate. The Program must rely on the borrower’s or guarantor’s continued financial viability for repayment of Loans. If a borrower or guarantor experiences a decrease in contributions or revenues, payments on that Loan may be adversely affected. Contributions may decline for a variety of reasons including, but not limited to, the impact of a softening economy, increased job losses or other economic difficulties encountered by church members, and/or a decline in the business prospects of donors. Generally, presbyteries, and in some cases synods, are either co-obligors or guarantors on Loans made to particular churches and other qualifying Related Entities. There is no assurance that any such guarantees will be sufficient to repay the amounts owed by the churches to the Program under the Loans. See “Lending Activities.”

9. Special Purpose of Borrower Properties. Although the Loans made by the Program are primarily secured by a first mortgage on the borrower’s property with loan-to-value ratios not exceeding 80%, typically such property is improved for church, charitable or educational uses and may have a lower fair market value than general purpose properties. As a result, there is no assurance that such properties can be sold for an amount that will be sufficient to repay the amounts owed by borrowers to the Program under the Loans.

10. Loan Policies. The relationship of the Program to its borrowers and Loan delinquencies cannot be compared to that of a normal commercial lender. Recognizing the relationship to its borrowers, the Program’s loan eligibility and approval criteria may be more flexible than might be applied by a normal commercial lender. In addition, in view of the relationship to its borrowers, the Program may be willing to renegotiate the terms of Loans and, accordingly, the timing and amount of collections on such Loans may be modified. See “Lending Activities.”

11. Future Changes in Federal or State Laws. Changes in federal laws or the laws of the various states in which the Program offers its Notes may make it more difficult or costly for the Program to offer and sell Notes in the future. The failure to obtain additional authority in the future for continuation of the sale of new Notes could adversely impact the ability of the Program to repay its maturing Notes. Reinvestments in Notes can only be made if there is a currently effective qualification, registration or exemption from registration in the applicable states for the sale of the Notes, which may or may not be granted.

12. Note Repayment Ability. The Program uses principal and interest payments on Loans and earnings from Invested Funds, and may use proceeds from the sale of new Notes and funds held under Denominational Accounts on a cash-flow basis, to pay interest and principal on Notes (see “Use of Proceeds” on page 13). In the years 2024, 2023, and 2022 no proceeds from sales of new Notes were required to fund actual Note redemptions. Future market conditions could affect the Program’s ability to repay Notes. For example, if yields on Invested Funds fall below Note interest rates, if demand for new Notes decreases significantly or ceases altogether, if there is a significant decrease in the renewal rate of maturing Notes resulting in a significant increase in redemptions, or if a substantial percentage of borrowers defaults on Loan payments, the Program’s resulting financial condition could adversely affect its ability to repay Notes. Nationally the percentage of maturing Notes (excluding demand obligations) that renewed or were reinvested in each of the past three years was 90% in 2024, 81% in 2023, and 91% in 2022. As of December 31, 2024, the amounts of Notes and Denominational Accounts (excluding demand obligations) due to mature in 2025 were $28,520,260 and $26,733,176, respectively. As of December 31, 2024, the Program had $14,671,223 in cash and Invested Funds, which was equal to 51.4% of Notes due to mature in 2025 (excluding demand obligations) and 26.2% of all outstanding Notes payable.

13. Geographic Concentration of Loans. There are risks related to geographic concentration of Loans to borrowers within a limited region, such that changes in economic conditions of that region could affect the ability of the borrowers, as a group, to repay the Loans. See “Loans by Geographic Region” on page 18.

14. Material Obligations to a Single Investor. A portion of the Program's outstanding Notes payable, as of December 31, 2024, was comprised of an investment from a single investor with an outstanding amount totaling $6,654,687. The investment was split between (i) a four-year Fixed Rate Term Note with an outstanding amount of $1,596,545 as of December 31, 2024, and which matures July 25, 2025, (ii) a four-year Fixed-Rate Term Note with an outstanding amount of $1,727,276 as of December 31, 2024, which matures July 25, 2026; (iii) a four-year Fixed Rate Term Note with an outstanding amount of $1,609,743 as of December 31, 2024, which matures July 25, 2027; and (iv) a four-year Fixed Rate Term Note with an outstanding amount of $1,721,123 as of December 31, 2024, which matures July 25, 2028. There is no guarantee that these Term Notes will be renewed at maturity or will not be withdrawn.

15. Future Material Credit Losses. The Program's allowances for credit losses is maintained at a level considered adequate to provide for probable incurred credit losses. As of December 31, 2024, the aggregate allowance for credit losses was $700,000. There is a risk that credit losses could be greater than the Program's present allowance for credit losses which, if significantly greater than anticipated, could adversely affect the Program's financial condition.

16. Competition from Other Lenders. The availability and cost of loans offered by banks, other corporations, and loan programs may affect overall demand for Loans from the Program. Any decrease in the demand for Loans could adversely affect the Program's financial condition.

17. Other Investment Opportunities; Low Rates and Relative Risks. Other investment opportunities may yield a higher rate of return with less risk than the Notes. This may adversely affect sales of the Notes. Risks of investment in the Notes may be greater than implied by relatively low interest rates on the Notes.

18. Interest Rate Fluctuation. Interest rates will fluctuate in the future. Investors should be aware that if interest rates rise or fall, the Program is not obligated to redeem any Note prior to its maturity. Further, if interest rates fall, in order to reduce future interest obligations, the Program may exercise its right to call Notes for redemption (see Risk Factor 23 below).

19. Interest Rate on Automatic Rollover or Reinvestment at Maturity. Upon maturity of a Note, if an Investor does not choose to redeem the Note or to reinvest the amount due thereunder into a new Note, then it will be automatically renewed at the current interest rate in effect on the date of maturity for such type and term of Note. If the Program is then offering a separate interest rate for investments of only new funds, that separate interest rate will not apply to a rollover or reinvestment, and only the rate then applicable to rollovers or reinvestments not involving new funds will apply. If the then current interest rate is less than the interest rate on the Note as in effect prior to maturity, the Investor will receive a lower interest rate return on the renewed Note.

20. Interest Rate Policy and Payment Change. The Program reserves the right to change the method by which interest is determined or the frequency with which interest is paid to the Investor or added to the Notes. If the Program exercises its right to change the method by which interest is calculated or the frequency in which interest is paid on existing Notes, the holders of such Notes would receive written notification describing the changes and the method of determining rates of such Notes. If upon receiving the notice, Investors wish to make a complete withdrawal, they may do so (without penalty) within 30 days of receiving the notice. For the last payment of interest only, they may also be paid interest at the rates in effect for these Notes during the preceding month, provided they notify the Program within this thirty-day period.

21. Program Solely Liable on Notes. The debts and liabilities of the Program, including the Notes, are independent of the financial structure of PCUSA or the Church Corporation or any Related Entities. Therefore, Investors may not rely upon PCUSA, the General Assembly or its related corporations, the Church Corporation, or any church, synod, presbytery, institution or agency affiliated with PCUSA (except for the Program) for payment of the Notes when due. The Program is a legal corporation, separate and distinct from PCUSA and its other affiliated corporations and, therefore, is not liable for the claims made against PCUSA, although it is possible that claims may be made against the Program in relation to matters associated with PCUSA or related units or entities.

22. Early Withdrawal Penalties and Excess Monthly Withdrawal Service Fee. The Program is not required to redeem any Fixed or Adjustable Rate Term Note prior to its maturity date. In the event the Program agrees, in its sole discretion, to redeem a Fixed or Adjustable Rate Term Note prior to its maturity, early withdrawal penalties may be applied. In the case of Mission Market Fund Notes, excess monthly withdrawals beyond three (3) per month are subject to a service fee of $50.00 per excess monthly withdrawal. See “Withdrawal and Early Withdrawal Penalties” on page 25 and “Excess Monthly Withdrawal Service Fee (Mission Market Fund Notes Only)” on page 25.

23. Ability to Call Notes. The Program has the right to call Notes for redemption at any time upon sixty (60) days written notice. In such event, interest will be paid to the date of redemption.

24. Limitation on Transferability. The Notes are non-negotiable and may be assigned only upon the Program’s written consent.

25. Unclaimed Property. If in the course of a seven (7) year period the Program receives more than six (6) returned statements or other pieces of mail pertaining to a Note that the Program has sent to the Investor, then the Note will be declared inactive and the Program shall cease sending further mailings or interest payments to the Investor. However, the Note will continue to accrue interest until it is redeemed or until it is disposed of by the Program pursuant to applicable state unclaimed property laws.

26. Environmental Risks on Collateral. There is potential environmental liability associated with the collateral securing the Loans made by the Program. The Program generally requires a borrower to complete an Environmental Checklist supplied by the Program or to furnish a Phase I Environmental Report. In the event that environmental pollution or other contamination is found on or near property securing a Loan, the Program could, in some cases, face environmental liability or the security for the Loan could be impaired. Currently, the Program’s policies generally require that either such conditions be remedied or the Loan will not be made. In addition, changes to environmental regulations after a Loan is made could require a borrower to incur significant unanticipated expenses to comply with such regulations which could adversely affect the borrower’s ability to repay the Loan.

27. Construction Risks. Many of the Loans made by the Program are used by borrowers for construction of new facilities or improvements to existing facilities. Consequently, such Loans will be subject to usual construction-related risks. Such risks include defaults or bankruptcies of contractors or subcontractors, construction delays (due to events such as weather conditions, strikes, shortage of materials, acts of nature, regulatory delays, etc.), increased and unexpected costs, adverse effects on adjacent facilities and other operations, and other factors and contingencies unknown to or beyond the control of the borrower or other parties. In the event that construction is delayed or prevented, or if costs for construction increase substantially, the borrower’s ability to repay a Loan could be adversely affected.

28. Cybersecurity Risks. Like any modern financial business, the Program faces the potential for cyberattacks, data breaches, and other cybersecurity incidents including hacking, identity theft, malware and other fraudulent, illegal or improper activities perpetrated by third parties. While the Program and the third-party vendors utilized by the Program maintain cybersecurity measures to reduce such risks, the rapidly evolving nature of cybersecurity threats means that no system is entirely secure. Successful breaches, malfeasance, or human or technological error could result in, for example, (i) unauthorized access to, or disclosure, modification, theft, misuse, loss, or destruction of sensitive or confidential data relating to the Program, investors, borrowers, or other third parties, or the theft of funds, (ii) the loss of access to critical data or systems through ransomware or other means, (iii) service or system delays, disruptions, or denials of service, or (iv) financial losses, reputational damage, and potential legal liabilities. Any such occurrences, if significant, may materially impact the Program’s ability to carry out its operations which, in turn, could adversely affect the Program’s financial condition and have a materially adverse effect upon the Program’s liquidity and ability to repay Notes.

THE OFFERING

The Program may issue up to One Hundred Fifty Million Dollars ($150,000,000) of its Notes throughout the fifty (50) states, the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico during the 12-month period ending April 30, 2026. This amount may be issued in any one or more of the types of Notes provided that no more than Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($500,000) of new Term Notes only will be issued in the State of Washington.

HISTORY AND OPERATIONS

Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) (“PCUSA”)

PCUSA was formed by two historic religious denominations: the Presbyterian Church in the United States (“PCUS”) and the United Presbyterian Church in the United States of America (“UPCUSA”). The church split into these two denominations during the Civil War and reunited in 1983. The UPCUSA was itself formed by a merger in 1958 of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America and the United Presbyterian Church of North America. The United Presbyterian Church of North America was formed in 1858, when the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church and the Associate Presbyterian Church united.

Ecumenical in outlook, PCUSA traces its roots to the Protestant Reformation, John Calvin and John Knox. The Reformed Tradition emphasizes the “majesty, holiness, and providence of God who creates, sustains, rules, and redeems the world in freedom of sovereign righteousness and love.” [Form of Government 2.0500a] Today, PCUSA’s membership is drawn from diverse cultures and speaks multiple languages in worship, education and service.

PCUSA is an unincorporated body of Reformed Christians who have agreed to conduct their worship and other religious activities in conformity with the then current version of the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), which contains, among other things, in the Book of Order, the Form of Government setting forth a detailed formal structure of PCUSA. Central to the organizational structure of PCUSA is the concept of governing bodies, of which there are four types; sessions of particular churches (the first particular churches were established in Maryland in 1683), presbyteries (the first of which was established in Philadelphia in 1706), synods (the first of which was established in Philadelphia in 1716), and the General Assembly (which first met in Philadelphia in 1789).

In the local setting, there are approximately 8,444 particular churches throughout the United States, the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico, most of which have formed not-for-profit corporations.

The presbytery is a corporate expression of PCUSA consisting of all the churches and ministers of the Word and Sacrament within a certain district. A presbytery is responsible for the mission and government of PCUSA throughout its geographical district. Currently, there are a total of 166 presbyteries, which includes four presbyteries encompassing nongeographical districts.

In the regional setting, there are 16 synods. The synod is the intermediate governmental unit responsible for the mission of the church throughout its region.

In the national setting, PCUSA’s highest governing body is the General Assembly, a representative body of PCUSA which met annually from 1789 to 2004. In 2004, the General Assembly began meeting biennially. Any member of PCUSA may attend a meeting of the General Assembly, but only the commissioners elected by the presbyteries may vote upon the issues presented. The General Assembly receives reports on the work of the denomination and considers issues concerning the denomination and its religious purposes and objectives.

The commissioners of the General Assembly elect or confirm the corporate members of various recognized instrumentalities and the directors of the established instrumentalities at the General Assembly level.

Under the Form of Government, the General Assembly elects a Presbyterian Mission Agency Board (formerly known as the General Assembly Mission Council and, prior to that, as the General Assembly Council), which is authorized to act for the General Assembly (on specific matters assigned by the General Assembly) between meetings of the General Assembly in a manner consistent with previously enacted General Assembly policies. In 2024, the General Assembly voted to combine the Presbyterian Mission Agency with the Office of General Assembly (the ecclesial office of the denomination) into one Unified Agency. The staff of the Unified Agency is headed by the Stated Clerk/Executive Director of the Unified Agency. To carry out the mission initiatives of PCUSA at the General Assembly level, the former Presbyterian Mission Agency managed Communications, Mission Engagement and Support, and four (4) ministry areas. One of these ministry areas was Racial Equity and Women’s Intercultural Ministries, within which was housed the Church Loan Program (loans funded from the endowment funds). PCUSA was in the forefront of a church loan program which arose from a call to members as early as 1843 to establish endowment funds “to help enfeebled churches” The endowment fund income was added to revolving loan funds which were augmented by interest paid by churches as they paid back their loans. In more recent years the interest income and other revenue sources have been used to also provide grants, and the principal repayment continues to be used to restore the revolving loan funds to provide further loans. Endowment funds are held by the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) Foundation. Prior to October 1, 2018, the conduit for loan disbursement was through the Church Corporation and loan approval through the Mission Development Resources Committee of the Presbyterian Mission Agency Board.

The corporation serving the Church Loan Program, prior to October 1, 2018, was the Church Corporation. The Church Corporation is the principal corporation of the General Assembly. It is a Pennsylvania nonprofit corporation, founded in 1799, and incorporated in 1986.

In 1995, it was determined that the Church Development Activities of PCUSA should be extended and that this extension should be operated through a separate corporation. This determination resulted in the formation of the Program. The Church Corporation is the sole nonvoting member of the Program.

In 2018, the Presbyterian Mission Agency Board approved the transfer of the Church Loan Program to the Program. This includes, but is not limited to, board oversight, authority and governance, policy setting, final loan and building grant approval and loan origination and servicing. Since October 1, 2018, the Program's expenses for the Church Loan Program a/k/a the endowment funded loan program are being directly reimbursed by the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) Foundation ("Foundation"), where the endowment funds are held. This arrangement is outlined in a memorandum of understanding between the Foundation and the Program.

Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) Investment and Loan Program, Inc.

The name of the issuer is Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) Investment and Loan Program, Inc. Its principal address is 100 Witherspoon Street, Louisville, Kentucky 40202. The creation of the Program was authorized by the 207th General Assembly of PCUSA in 1995. It was incorporated in Pennsylvania on July 31, 1995, as a nonprofit corporation primarily to augment the activities of church development of PCUSA. Whereas the existing Church Loan Program primarily uses endowed funds to make loans, the Program was incorporated to obtain funds for Loans through the issuance of Notes. The Program is exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), from taxation under Subtitle A thereof. It is not a "private foundation" under Section 509 of the Code, and is organized and operated exclusively for religious, educational, benevolent and charitable purposes. No part of the net earnings of the Program inures to the benefit of any person or individual. The Program, as a nonprofit corporation, does not have any shareholders. Its sole member, which is nonvoting, is the Church Corporation.

The management affairs of the Program are conducted by a fifteen member Board of Directors. The day-to-day operations of the Program are carried out under supervision of the President who is the chief executive officer of the Program. Although the management and operations of the Program and its Board of Directors are independent of the Church Corporation, the work and mission of the Program is affiliated with PCUSA and the Church Loan Program.

In January 1996, the Program was initially funded with a $4,000,000 grant from the Church Corporation, and the Program purchased a portfolio of loans totaling $4,355,207 (as of January 31, 1996) from the Church Corporation in exchange for a note payable to the Church Corporation. (These loans have since been returned and the note payable to the Church Corporation has since been cancelled.)

The Program accepts Denominational Accounts from Church Organizations as a further source of funds. In addition, the Program issues Notes to obtain funds to carry on Church Development Activities. See "Financing and Operational Activities."

The Program is authorized, in furtherance of its corporate purposes, to provide a variety of services to PCUSA congregations, governing bodies (including sessions of congregations), related theological and educational institutions or ministries. The Program is engaged primarily in assisting congregations, governing bodies and theological and educational institutions or ministries related to PCUSA in the United States, the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico in planning and financing their capital expansion projects.

The Program provides the following principal services to PCUSA, its governing bodies, congregations and related institutions:

- (a) The issuance of certificates, notes, or any other financial instruments approved by its Board of Directors in order to raise funds for the mission of PCUSA;
- (b) The establishment of underwriting standards and loan criteria and the lending of funds, based upon those standards and criteria, to qualifying Related Entities to enable them to acquire or improve real property or to refinance debt previously incurred for such acquisition or improvement;
- (c) The training and orientation of volunteers, committees, employees, and others within synods, presbyteries, and congregations who have responsibilities related to the work of the Program;
- (d) Accounting and reporting with respect to all of the foregoing; and
- (e) Such other mission, finance, and related services as the General Assembly or the Presbyterian Mission Agency may direct or approve.

Since October 1, 2018, the Church Loan Program has been fully integrated into the Program. The endowment funds used for the Church Loan Program are held at the Foundation. A memorandum of understanding outlines the relationship and responsibilities of the Program and the Foundation as they relate to the Church Loan Program. This structure streamlined the operations and offered borrowers a more simplified loan process.

USE OF PROCEEDS

The Program shall use the proceeds from the sale of its Notes to carry on Church Development Activities as follows:

1. Loans will be made to congregations, governing bodies, and other Related Entities;
2. Any Note proceeds not used as described above will be invested pursuant to the Program’s investment policies. See “Investing Activities”;
3. It is anticipated that all operating expenses will be charged against the Program’s net assets without donor restrictions and not against Note proceeds, although the cash flow from Note proceeds may, in fact, be used for operating expenses to the extent that cash flow from other sources is insufficient.
4. It is anticipated that all interest and principal due on Notes will be charged against the Program’s assets exclusive of new Note proceeds, although the cash flow from new Note proceeds may, in fact, be used to repay interest and principal due on Notes to the extent that cash flow from other sources is insufficient.

The amount of proceeds actually used for each of these purposes will vary depending upon a number of factors, including the amount of Notes sold to new Investors, the amount of Notes redeemed or renewed at any given time by existing Investors, the demand for new Loans, and the amount of scheduled payments and prepayments received on outstanding Loans. The Program anticipates that its operating expenses will represent less than 2.2% of the aggregate offering amount (based on the Program’s 2025 budget) and that new Note proceeds will not be needed (except on a “cash flow” basis) for operating expenses or to repay interest and principal due on Notes. Accordingly, the Program anticipates that new Note proceeds will be used for the purpose of making Loans, with surplus funds being invested in accordance with the Program’s investment policies. However, there is no guarantee that the anticipated results will occur.

DESCRIPTION OF PROPERTY

The Program does not own any real estate or real estate improvements. The Program leases its offices and substantially all of its furniture from the Church Corporation. The Program pays rent to the Church Corporation for the use of the office area devoted to the operations of the Program. The Program paid the Church Corporation $80,848 in 2024, $80,848 in 2023, and $73,010 in 2022 for office space. See “Management Services.”

FINANCING AND OPERATIONAL ACTIVITIES

The Program’s means of generating funds for Church Development Activities is through the sale of Notes, acceptance of Denominational Accounts, earnings from Invested Funds and principal and interest payments on Loans.

On January 31, 1996, the Program was initially funded through a $4,000,000 grant from the Church Corporation. The Church Corporation made an additional $1,000,000 capital contribution in February 1999.

In addition to the offer and sale of Notes to Investors, the Program accepts Denominational Accounts in which Church Organizations may place funds with the Program, in minimum amounts of one hundred dollars ($100), for a term of six months to five years, or on demand, earning an adjustable or fixed rate of interest. Like the Program’s Notes, Denominational Accounts are general obligations of the Program, are unsecured and not insured, and are of equal priority with all other current indebtedness of the Program including Notes. Currently, the method for determining interest rates for Denominational Accounts is identical to the method used to determine interest rates for Notes. The interest rate on the Denominational Accounts will be adjusted pursuant to the policies of the Program as they may be adopted from time to time by the Program’s Board of Directors. The Program may terminate any Denominational Account upon sixty (60) days written notice to the Church Organization.

The proceeds from the Denominational Accounts will be utilized in the same manner as proceeds from the sale of Notes. The proceeds may be used to fund new Loans, or if the proceeds are not necessary to fund new Loans, the proceeds may be invested as Invested Funds. It is expected that proceeds will be used to meet operating expenses, or to pay principal and interest payments on Notes and Denominational Accounts, on a cash-flow basis only in a manner similar to that described for Notes in “Use of Proceeds” on page 13.

As of December 31, 2024, the Program had a $3,000,000 unsecured line of credit from PNC Bank, N.A. and, as of December 31, 2024, the Program had no outstanding balance on the line of credit.

Outstanding Notes and Denominational Accounts Payable

As of December 31, 2024, the Program had 1,707 Notes outstanding totaling $56,018,445. The amount of Note proceeds and redemptions for the year ended December 31, 2024, are as follows:

	2024

A portion of the Program’s outstanding Notes payable, as of December 31, 2024, was comprised of an investment from a single investor with an outstanding amount totaling $6,654,687. The investment was split between (i) a four-year Fixed Rate Term Note with an outstanding amount of $1,596,545 as of December 31, 2024, and which matures July 25, 2025, (ii) a four-year Fixed-Rate Term Note with an outstanding amount of $1,727,276 as of December 31, 2024, which matures July 25, 2026; (iii) a four-year Fixed Rate Term Note with an outstanding amount of $1,609,743 as of December 31, 2024, which matures July 25, 2027; and (iv) a four-year Fixed Rate Term Note with an outstanding amount of $1,721,123 as of December 31, 2024, which matures July 25, 2028. There is no guarantee that these Term Notes will be renewed at maturity or will not be withdrawn.

Also, as of December 31, 2024, the Program had 196 Denominational Accounts outstanding totaling $43,544,853. The amount of Denominational Account proceeds and redemptions for the year ended December 31, 2024, are as follows:

2027	2,279,700
2028	801,026
2029	1,072,848

For the years 2023 and 2024, an average total of $21,979,106 in Denominational Accounts were due to mature (excluding demand obligations). Of such average total, an average of $4,378,524 in Denominational Accounts were redeemed, while an average of $17,600,582 in Denominational Accounts were renewed or reinvested (before adding compounded interest not withdrawn to the renewed amounts). Of the total Denominational Accounts maturing in 2025, a total of $5,477,108 is payable to the Church Corporation and $7,000,000 is payable to the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) Foundation, and both the Church Corporation and the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) Foundation are expected to renew their Denominational Accounts.

As of December 31, 2024, the Program's outstanding debt obligations, including compounded interest, are summarized as follows:

As of December 31, 2024, the Program had Loans with an outstanding balance totaling $108,053,753. The contractual Loan maturities in each of the next five (5) years and the aggregate thereafter are as follows:

2025	$ 5,163,084
2026	7,319,772
2027	5,652,344
2028	6,410,220
2029	6,354,810
2030 and thereafter	77,153,523
Total	$ 108,053,753

The North American Securities Administrators Association Statement of Policy Regarding Church Extension Funds requires that a church extension fund, such as the Program, should limit the amount of loans that are not secured by real or personal property or guaranteed by third parties to no more than ten percent (10%) of its outstanding loans. The Program's underwriting guidelines currently provide a more stringent standard and specify that the amount of unsecured Loans may not at any time exceed five percent (5%) of the total balance of its outstanding Loans. As of December 31, 2024, there were four (4) Loans that were unsecured with an outstanding principal balance of $134,084 (representing 0.12% of the total Loans outstanding, net of allowance for credit losses).

LENDING ACTIVITIES

Loans will be made to qualifying Related Entities for land purchase contiguous to an existing facility, land purchase for development generally within six months, building acquisition, expansion, construction, rehabilitation and refinancing of debt previously incurred for such purposes and short-term lines of credit for either capital or operating purposes. All Loans are conditional upon the borrower's continuing relationship with PCUSA. A Loan may be made in conjunction with local sources of funds including, but not limited to, Loans made in participation with other lenders, either as the lead lender or as a participating lender. In addition to Loans made to congregations, presbyteries, synods, and the General Assembly, Loans may also be made to other qualifying Related Entities.

The Program's underwriting guidelines have been established and may be changed only by the Program's Board of Directors. As of the date of this Offering Circular, the Program's underwriting guidelines are as described below. The Program's underwriting guidelines generally require that Loans be secured by a first mortgage or deed of trust on the property of the borrowers and/or by a pledge of Notes and/or Denominational Accounts in an amount at all times equal to or exceeding the outstanding Loan principal balance. When Notes or Denominational Accounts are pledged to secure a Loan, the underwriting guidelines require that the Program's security interest in such pledged assets be perfected pursuant to applicable state laws. At least ninety (90%) of the Program's outstanding loans will be secured by real or personal property. The underwriting guidelines also generally require presbyteries to either execute promissory notes for particular borrowers as an obligor or execute a guarantee agreement as guarantor for loans to borrowers in their jurisdictions. Any extension, renewal or modification of a Loan will be underwritten according to policies applicable at the time of extension, renewal or modification of the Loan. The Program's underwriting guidelines further generally require all borrowers to submit a financial plan for Loan repayment including source of funds, repayment schedules, and cash flow projections. Under the Program's underwriting guidelines, all borrowers are expected to have a minimum of twenty percent (20%) equity in the property being mortgaged.

The Program's underwriting guidelines also generally require borrowers to submit, at minimum, the following:

1. A completed Loan application;
2. Financial statements for the borrower's three most recent years, along with a list of borrower's cash and liquid investments not disclosed in financial statements;
3. A copy of the borrower's operating budget for the current year;
4. Internal statements showing year-to-date expenditures against current budget;
5. The next year's proposed budget, if available;
6. A proposed plan for repayment;
7. Certified copies of the borrower's governing documents and, where applicable, a Certificate of Good Standing.
8. If the Loan is to be secured, in whole or in part, by a mortgage or deed of trust on real property:
 - a. A set of architectural drawings, if applicable;
 - b. An appraised value of any property being purchased or a completed Appraisal Checklist supplied by the Program;
 - c. An Environmental Checklist supplied by the Program or a Phase I Environmental Report;
 - d. Copies of construction contracts between the borrower and contractors (if any);
 - e. Copies of payment and performance bonds in connection with construction contracts may be required;
 - f. Preliminary title insurance commitment from a title insurance company, along with updates to such commitment as necessary, or a current abstract of title if title insurance is unavailable;

- g. A current property survey, if required to lift survey exceptions to title insurance;
- h. Evidence of zoning compliance, if applicable; and
- i. Copies of soil tests (if required for building permit).

The Program may, on an exception basis, waive one or more of these requirements if the Program determines that doing so will not materially increase the risk associated with the particular Loan.

In addition, in the case of Loans secured, in whole or in part, by a mortgage or deed of trust on real property, the Program's underwriting guidelines generally require borrowers to maintain hazard and, if applicable, builder's risk insurance in an amount at least equal to the Loan amount. The Program must be named as an additional insured and loss payee/mortgagee on any such policy of insurance during the term of a Loan. Also, the underwriting guidelines generally require property title insurance to be obtained where it is available.

The terms and availability of Loans to be made by the Program have been established and are revised periodically by the Program's Board of Directors. Loans are written at an interest rate, determined under the policies of the Program, which adjusts at least every three (3) years and is based on the Program's then current Cost of Funds. Interest rates of Loans are generally based on the Program's then current Cost of Funds plus a margin that is generally, but can be greater or smaller than, 3% per annum. Generally, the margin is an addition of at least 2.5% per annum. The Program reserves the right to offer differing interest rates for Loans with different periods of interest rate adjustments (i.e., a two-year adjustable rate Loan versus a three-year adjustable rate Loan). Presently, on Loans where the loan commitment was issued prior to August 15, 2008, Loans originated for $1,000,000 or less will have the interest rate adjusted biennially, and Loans originated for more than $1,000,000 will have the interest rate adjusted annually. On Loans where the loan commitment was issued on or after August 15, 2008, the interest rate will generally adjust every three (3) years or may adjust every five (5) years. Loans for capital construction may be at a fixed or adjustable rate and may carry an interest rate up to one-half of one percent (1/2%) per annum higher during the construction phase than the permanent Loan rate. Loans will generally be written with monthly payments based on up to a twenty (20) year amortization period, but may be written with monthly payments based on an amortization period ranging from two (2) years to twenty-five (25) years. A penalty will apply to late payments.

The Program also offers special purpose loans which include the Restoring Creation Loan (for energy efficiency), the Accessibility Loan, and the Safety and Technology Loan. These loans typically have a discounted interest rate of up to 1% below the Program's base interest rate, and may have interest-only periods as well as a lower equity requirement. The Restoring Creation Loan is used for the purpose of funding projects that will improve a building's energy efficiency. Examples include solar panels, high-efficiency HVAC systems or high-efficiency water heaters. The Accessibility Loan is used for congregations and camps making their facilities more accessible and inclusive to people living with disabilities. Examples of such projects are elevators, ramps and accessible bathrooms. The Safety and Technology Loan is used for the purpose of providing safe worship and work environments, such as meeting protocol standards during such time as a pandemic. Examples of qualifying projects are the purchase of audio-visual technology and related training, sanitizing equipment, and installing touchless bathrooms.

Supporting Investment Requirement

The Program generally provides a Loan commitment to borrowers in which a base interest rate on the Loan is specified. The borrower is generally required, under the underwriting guidelines, to have investments with the Program, designated for that particular borrower, in an amount equal to the lesser of $300,000 per Loan or twenty percent (20%) of the requested Loan amount prior to the Loan closing date, and throughout the construction phase, to obtain the Program's base interest rate. During the permanent phase of a Loan, the borrower is generally required to have investments with the Program, designated for that particular borrower, in an amount equal to the lesser of $300,000 per Loan or twenty percent (20%) of the outstanding Loan balance. In any month in which a borrower does not have designated for its account an amount of investment in securities of the Program equal to at least the lesser of $300,000 per Loan or twenty percent (20%) of the outstanding Loan balance (or of the full committed Loan amount during the construction phase) of such borrower or, in the case of new church development, the required minimum investment level for new church development, the interest rate for that month will be increased by up to one percent (1%) per annum over the base interest rate charged for such Loan. However, with respect to new church development, in order to obtain the Program's base interest rate, the underwriting guidelines require members of the borrowing congregation or other Presbyterian persons or entities to invest with the Program (and designate for the borrowing congregation's Loan) an amount equal to five percent (5%) of the Loan commitment prior to closing, ten percent

(10%) of the outstanding Loan balance (or of the full committed Loan amount during the construction phase) by the end of the first year of the term of the Loan, fifteen percent (15%) of the outstanding Loan balance by the end of the second year, and thirty percent (30%) of the outstanding Loan balance by the end of the third year and each year thereafter. In any month in which these levels are not maintained, the interest rate for such month will increase by up to one percent (1%).

Rebate Policy

For each calendar year, borrowers are effectively given a reduction in the interest rate charged on any Loan, in the form of a rebate of a portion of interest paid for such year, with respect to any month in which investments in Notes and Denominational Accounts designated for such borrower’s Loan, as determined by the Program (such designated investments hereinafter referred to as “Borrower Investments”), reach certain levels according to the following schedule:

- i) In any month, if Borrower Investments total, for the entire month, at least thirty-five percent (35%), but less than fifty percent (50%), of the outstanding principal balance of the borrower’s Loan, the interest rate on the borrower’s Loan is effectively reduced for that month by one-quarter of one percent (1/4%);
- ii) In any month, if Borrower Investments total, for the entire month, at least fifty percent (50%), but less than seventy-five percent (75%), of the outstanding principal balance of the borrower’s Loan, the interest rate on the borrower’s Loan is effectively reduced for that month by one-half of one percent (1/2%);
- iii) In any month, if Borrower Investments total, for the entire month, at least seventy-five percent (75%), but less than one hundred percent (100%), of the outstanding principal balance of the borrower’s Loan, the interest rate on the borrower’s Loan is effectively reduced for that month by three-quarters of one percent (3/4%); and
- iv) In any month, if Borrower Investments total, for the entire month, at least one hundred percent (100%) of the outstanding principal balance of the borrower’s Loan, the interest rate on the borrower’s Loan is effectively reduced for that month by one percent (1%).

The rebate consists of the difference between 1) the actual interest paid by a borrower for any calendar year and 2) the amount of interest payable for such calendar year calculated with the reductions, as set forth above, which will be returned to the borrower after the end of each calendar year, provided that no rebate will be given with respect to any month for which the interest charged is not paid by January 20th of the succeeding calendar year. In the case of rebates during the construction phase of a construction Loan, the rebates will be determined as stated above, except that the full Loan commitment amount will be used instead of the outstanding principal balance of the borrower’s Loan.

Loans by Geographic Region

As of December 31, 2024, the amount of Loans outstanding in each of the eight geographic regions classified by the U.S. Bureau of Economic Analysis (BEA), and their respective percentages of the total Loans outstanding, were as follows:

Material Loans and Loan Delinquencies

The Program had a balance of $107,353,753 (as of December 31, 2024) in outstanding Loans, net of allowance for credit losses (the “Total Loan Balance”). None of the Program’s Loans had an outstanding principal balance greater than five percent (5%) of the Total Loan Balance as of December 31, 2024.

During the three-year period ending and as of December 31, 2024, none of the Program’s Loans were more than ninety (90) days past due as of December 31, 2024, 2023, and 2022, respectively. As of December 31, 2024, none of the Program’s Loans were impaired. There can be no assurance that delinquencies will not increase in the future.

Due to the nature of the relationship with its borrowers, it is the policy of the Program to work with its borrowers in their efforts to meet Loan obligations. However, no assurance can be given that the Program will be willing to refinance, restructure or work out delinquent Loans in the future.

Allowance for Credit Losses

The Program’s allowance for credit losses is maintained at a level considered adequate to provide for probable incurred credit losses. As of December 31, 2024, the aggregate allowance for credit losses was $700,000.

INVESTING ACTIVITIES

The Program maintains a portion of its assets in an investment portfolio pending utilization for Loan activities or for maintaining reasonable liquidity. Investments conform to the social investment policies of PCUSA which i) generally encourage investments in entities which further the pursuit of peace, racial justice, economic and social justice, and gender equality and ii) currently prohibit investments in certain specified corporations engaged in substantial tobacco-related business or engaged in substantial military-related production. The current investment policy of the Program restricts investments to obligations of the U.S. Government and U.S. Agencies, Certificates of Deposit (CD’s), Corporate Issues rated A or better, Commercial Paper rated A-1 or A-2, Variable Rate Demand Notes, Money Market funds or comparable investment vehicles with like investments, Domestic Equities, Non-U.S. Equities, and some Alternatives. Direct investments in separately managed accounts must be rated investment grade or better at the time of purchase. Duration of the fixed income portfolio shall be limited to an average term of 5 years or less. The Program may from time to time change its investment policies to include other types of investments.

The finance committee of the Board of Directors oversees the investment policy and reviews investment transactions. The President and CEO or the CFO and Treasurer of the Investment and Loan Program, Inc. are authorized to carry out the intent of the policy. The Program also utilizes the services of one or more third-party investment management companies to monitor the allocation and assist management in rebalancing the portfolios. The President, CFO, and the third-party investment manager(s) review the performance and portfolios to determine progress toward achieving established goals and benchmarks. Results are shared with the finance committee as appropriate, and no less than annually.

Management’s Financial Summary

The Board of Directors of the Program regularly reviews its overall financial position. The Program’s operating philosophy is to maintain a position of liquidity sufficient to provide for operating cash requirements, a capital position sufficient to support its financial position and operations, and a margin of assets over liabilities. A significant shift in interest rates or Loan demand may adversely affect actual performance. The Program’s Board of Directors may modify existing procedures or implement new procedures to enable the Program to operate under changing economic conditions. Some of the key areas regularly reviewed are the following:

Source of Funds for Payment of Notes – Under the Program’s method of accounting, interest payments on Notes have been made from the Program’s operating income and net assets without donor restrictions, and principal payments on Notes have been made from the Program’s assets, exclusive of new Note proceeds. The Program anticipates that new Note proceeds will not be needed (except on a “cash flow” basis) for operating expenses or to repay interest and principal due on Notes. See “Use of Proceeds” on page 13. However, there is no guarantee that the anticipated results will occur.

Capital Adequacy – The net assets without donor restrictions of the Program have supported the Program’s ability to maintain its operations. As of December 31, 2024, the Program’s unrestricted assets as a percentage of its total assets were 17.72% determined as follows:

	12/31/2024
Net Assets Without Donor Restrictions.....	$ 22,259,353
Total Assets	125,603,244
Net Assets Without Donor Restrictions Percentage of Total Assets	17.72%

The Program strives to maintain a strong capital position to support the Program’s operations and growth.

Liquidity - It is the Program’s policy to maintain at all times an aggregate operating and reserve liquidity, comprised of cash, cash equivalents, readily marketable securities and immediately available funds through a line of credit, equal to at least 8% of the Program’s principal balance of all outstanding Notes and Denominational Accounts to provide for cash requirements of the Program as well as reserve liquidity. As of December 31, 2024, the Program had cash and Invested Funds equal to 14.43% of the total outstanding Notes and Denominational Accounts (DARs), determined as follows:

	12/31/2024
Cash and cash equivalents	$ 5,705,499
Investments (readily marketable).....	10,912,128
Less restricted investments – funds held for others	$(2,254,341)
Total Cash and Invested Funds.....	14,363,286
Notes and Denominational Accounts Payable	99,563,298
Cash and Invested Funds Percentage of Notes and DARs Payable.....	14.43%

Cash Flow – The ratio of available cash, cash equivalents and unrestricted, readily marketable Invested Funds as compared to cash redemptions has been at least one to one. As a result, the Program’s cash flows have been and are anticipated to remain sufficient to meet its cash requirements for expenses as well as payments of interest and principal due on Notes. However, there is no guarantee that the anticipated results will occur. The Program’s ratio of available cash to cash redemptions for its three most recent fiscal years is at least one to one (1:1) as follows:

Net cash from operating activities	$ 3,865,510	$ 1,703,546	$ 1,472,865

Loan Disbursements	(10,666,945)	(13,354,272)	(23,484,976)
Total Available Cash	$ 24,122,215	$ 24,261,216	$ 20,502,889
Redemptions of Notes	$ 7,905,224	$ 9,953,779	$ 10,641,901
Ratio	3.05	2.44	1.93

Loan Delinquencies - During the three-year period ending and as of December 31, 2024, none of the Program’s Loans were more than ninety (90) days past due as of December 31, 2024, 2023, and 2022, respectively. As of December 31, 2024, none of the Program’s Loans were impaired.

Operating Trends - The Program has had a net surplus of income over expenses in each year beginning with 2001. There is no guarantee that the Program will continue to have a net surplus of income over expenses in the future. Below is a summary of the Program’s change in net assets without donor restrictions for each of the last five (5) fiscal years:

	12/31/2024	12/31/2023	12/31/2022	12/31/2021	12/31/2020

Interest Rate Management - The Program's method of determining interest rates on Notes and Loans is based upon an effort to reduce the risks pertaining to the differential between borrowing and lending rates. Prior to closing a Loan, the Program limits the length of time to which it is committed to an initial Loan interest rate to sixty (60) day commitments. On Loans where the loan commitment was issued prior to August 15, 2008, Loans originated for $1,000,000 or less will have the interest rate adjusted biennially, and Loans originated for more than $1,000,000 will have the interest rate adjusted annually. On Loans where the loan commitment was issued on or after August 15, 2008, the interest rate will be adjusted every three (3) years. The Program charges a penalty for early withdrawal of Notes. See "Withdrawal and Early Withdrawal Penalties" on page 25. The Program has implemented these procedures to allow it to operate under fluctuating economic conditions.

DESCRIPTION OF NOTES

NOTE: Investments offered by the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) Investment and Loan Program, Inc. are not bank deposits or obligations and are not insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC), the Securities Investor Protection Corporation (SIPC) or any other federal or state agency.

The Program may issue up to One Hundred Fifty Million Dollars ($150,000,000) of its Notes throughout the fifty (50) states, the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico during the 12-month period ending April 30, 2026. This amount may be issued in any one or more of the types of Notes provided that no more than Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($500,000) of new Term Notes only will be issued in the State of Washington. Notes will be offered to eligible Investors and must be purchased in minimum face amounts of One Hundred Dollars ($100). The terms and conditions of Notes will be construed under and governed by Kentucky law. The terms of any Notes purchased pursuant to this Offering Circular will remain as described in this Offering Circular. However, no assurance can be given that the terms of any Notes offered in future issues will remain the same as those described herein.

Notes are issued as uncertificated securities (i.e., in book-entry form), and the right of Investors in such Notes will be reflected upon the books and records of the Program. An Investment Certification, along with a Terms & Conditions document, will be provided to Investors to confirm their investment.

All Notes offered to individual Investors are also available as investments for self-directed IRAs of individual Investors. In order to purchase Notes for a self-directed IRA, the individual Investor may direct his or her IRA custodian to submit to the Program an IRA Note Request along with an investment application completed by the individual Investor. Because an IRA is subject to specific requirements under the Internal Revenue Code, the Program does not represent that a Note is a permitted investment for an IRA and, therefore, an individual Investor should consult with his or her tax advisor and IRA custodian before directing a purchase of a Note for his or her self-directed IRA. Further, Notes are not available for purchase for the IRA of any individual Investor who is a director, officer or employee of the Program.

Borrowers under the Loans from the Program are generally required to have a minimum level of investments with the Program, designated for that particular borrower, in order to obtain the Program's base rate for the Loan. See "Supporting Investment Requirement" at page 17. In addition, if a borrower under a Loan from the Program meets certain levels of supporting investments, the borrower will effectively be given an interest rate rebate. See "Rebate Policy" at page 18.

The Program will accept payment for Notes in the form of cash, personal check, cashier's check, money order or wire transfer. The Program offers no financing terms.

Interest

Funds received for the purchase of Notes earn interest from the day of receipt calculated on a 365-day basis, except in leap years in which case interest is calculated on a 366 day basis. Interest is compounded daily and, except as described below with respect to Mission Market Fund Notes, is paid or credited on the last day of each three month period following the date of the Note. Interest shall be added to the amount due unless, except in the case of Mission Market Fund Notes, the Investor requests the interest to be paid to the Investor either upon application for the Note, or in any subsequent written notice received by the Program. This election may be changed at any time upon receipt by the Program of the Investor's written notice to change. However, for Notes with principal balances of $5,000 or less, the Program may require that interest be added to principal and that an election may not be made to have it paid to the Investor automatically. With respect to Mission Market Fund Notes, all interest is added to principal on a calendar quarterly basis, and Investors may not elect to have the interest automatically paid to them quarterly. All

Investors receive statements indicating the activities for the prior period at the end of each three-month period following the date of the Note. Investors may choose to make a charitable contribution to the Program of interest earned on Notes (see “Tax Aspects” at page 26).

Notes will bear interest at a rate that is determined from time to time in accordance with the then current policies of the Program. Interest rates are currently established by the Program based upon certain average savings yields (certificates of deposit) paid by 100 large banks and thrifts in the top ten consolidated metropolitan statistical areas as published in the Bank Rate Monitor™ as the “National Index.” For each type of Note, the Program computes a trailing four week average of rates, ending with the last week of each month, which becomes the midpoint of the interest rate range from which the Program establishes the rate for Notes to be issued in the following month. Except for separate interest rates for investments of only new funds and as described below for Mission Market Fund Notes, all Notes issued thereafter bear interest at a rate that is generally, but can be greater or smaller than, one percent (1%) above or below the midpoint. The Program may, from time to time, establish separate interest rates for investments of only new funds that may be significantly greater than one percent (1%) above the calculated midpoint. Mission Market Fund Notes earn interest only on balances of at least $100 and provide for five tiers of interest rates based upon whether the balance of the Note is under $50,000, from $50,000 up to $99,999.99, from $100,000 up to $249,999.99, from $250,000 up to $499,999.99, or $500,000 and over. The monthly adjusted interest rates will be set (i) for the lowest tier at rates comparable to the rates established for six-month Adjustable Rate Term Notes, (ii) for the lower middle tier at rates which are generally .05% to .50% above the lowest tier rates, (iii) for the middle tier at rates which are generally .10% to .75% above the lowest tier rates, (iv) for the upper middle tier at rates which are generally .15% to 1.00% above the lowest tier rates, and (v) for the highest tier at rates which are generally .20% to 1.25% above the lowest tier rates.

The interest rate on a Fixed Rate Term Note does not vary over the term of the Note. The interest rate on an Adjustable Rate Term Note and a Mission Market Fund Note may be adjusted monthly. See “Adjustable Rate Term Notes” and “Mission Market Fund Notes” below. The Program will review certain factors, such as investment gap analysis, Loan demand, cash flow needs and the current policy of the Federal Reserve, before establishing each month’s rate of interest. The Program will provide potential and existing Investors with current interest rates on Notes along with this Offering Circular and, at any other time, upon request.

The Program reserves the right to change the method by which interest is determined or the frequency with which interest is paid to the Investor or added to the Notes. If the Program exercises its right to change the method by which interest is calculated or the frequency in which interest is paid on existing Notes, the holders of such Notes would receive written notification describing the changes and the method of determining rates of such Notes. If upon receiving the notice, Investors wish to make a complete withdrawal, they may do so within 30 days of receiving the notice. For the last payment of interest only, they may also be paid interest at the rates in effect for these Notes during the preceding month, provided they notify the Program within this thirty day period.

The Program will establish interest rates on a monthly basis for Mission Market Fund Notes and for Notes having terms of six (6), twelve (12), twenty-four (24), thirty-six (36), forty-eight (48) and sixty (60) months. The Program may establish on a monthly basis an interest rate for any Note with another term length. If, at any time, the Program has not specifically established an interest rate for a Note with such other term length, then the applicable interest rate will be determined according to the following schedule:

If the term of the Note is:

- over 6 months, but less than 12 months, the 6 month rate for the applicable type of Note applies.
- over 12 months, but less than 24 months, the 12 month rate for the applicable type of Note applies.
- over 24 months, but less than 36 months, the 24 month rate for the applicable type of Note applies.
- over 36 months, but less than 48 months, the 36 month rate for the applicable type of Note applies.
- over 48 months, but less than 60 months, the 48 month rate for the applicable type of Note applies.

The Program may, from time to time, establish separate interest rates for investments of only new funds that are different from the interest rates applicable to rollovers or reinvestments of existing investments.

Fixed Rate Term Notes

Fixed Rate Term Notes pay interest at rates which remain fixed throughout their term and are available for terms of any period from six (6) to sixty (60) months.

Adjustable Rate Term Notes

Adjustable Rate Term Notes pay an adjustable interest rate that may be adjusted on the first day of each month. These Notes are available for terms of any period from six (6) to sixty (60) months. The monthly adjusted interest rate will be set within a range that is generally, but can be greater or smaller than, one percent (1%) above or below the midpoint used to calculate the interest rate on new Fixed Rate Term Notes of the same term. Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, the interest rate adjustment will not exceed a one percent increase or a one percent decrease within any month. The Program will review certain factors, such as investment gap analysis, Loan demand, cash flow needs and the current policy of the Federal Reserve, before establishing each month's rate of interest.

Mission Market Fund Notes

Mission Market Fund Notes are demand notes that pay an adjustable interest rate that may be adjusted on the first day of each month. A statement indicating the balance of a Mission Market Fund Note including any additions, withdrawals, and any interest credited, withdrawn or accumulated, will be furnished to the Investors at the end of each month.

Mission Market Fund Notes earn interest only on balances of at least $100 and provide for five tiers of interest rates based upon whether the balance of the Note is under $50,000, from $50,000 up to $99,999.99, from $100,000 up to $249,999.99, from $250,000 up to $499,999.99, or $500,000 and over. Additions of principal may be made to Mission Market Fund Notes at any time. Withdrawals from Mission Market Fund Notes may be made at any time without penalty and are payable upon written request of the Investor provided, however, that the Program reserves the right to require Investors to provide up to thirty (30) days written notice of any intended withdrawal before such withdrawal is made. Up to three (3) withdrawals may be made per month without any service fee, with excess monthly withdrawals being subject to a service fee of $50.00 per excess monthly withdrawal. Both additions to and withdrawals from Mission Market Fund Notes must be made in minimum amounts of $100. The monthly adjusted interest rates will be set (i) for the lowest tier at rates comparable to the rates established for six-month Adjustable Rate Term Notes, (ii) for the lower middle tier at rates which are generally .05% to .50% above the lowest tier rates, (iii) for the middle tier at rates which are generally .10% to .75% above the lowest tier rates, (iv) for the upper middle tier at rates which are generally .15% to 1.00% above the lowest tier rates, and (v) for the highest tier at rates which are generally .20% to 1.25% above the lowest tier rates. All interest is added to principal on a calendar quarterly basis, and Investors may not elect to have the interest automatically paid to them quarterly. The Program will review certain factors, such as investment gap analysis, Loan demand, cash flow needs and the current policy of the Federal Reserve, before establishing each month's rate of interest.

Maturity/Automatic Rollover

At least thirty (30) days prior to maturity of a Fixed Rate Term Note or an Adjustable Rate Term Note, the Program will send a written notice and a new Offering Circular to Investors. The notice given by the Program shall state the maturity date of such Note and that the Note shall be automatically renewed at the current interest rate in effect on the date of maturity for such type and term of Note and under the terms described in the then current Offering Circular, unless the Investor elects in writing within twenty (20) days before or after the Note's maturity date to redeem the Note or to reinvest the amount due thereunder into a new Note. If the Program is then offering a separate interest rate for investments of only new funds, that separate interest rate will not apply to a rollover or reinvestment, and only the rate then applicable to rollovers or reinvestments not involving new funds will apply. In the event that an Investor elects to redeem without reinvestment, upon surrender of the expired Note, the Program will pay to the Investor named in such Note the full amount of principal outstanding plus any interest added to principal and not previously withdrawn. The Program will also provide a current Offering Circular to each Investor with any maturity notice, unless the Investor has previously received a current Offering Circular.

Program’s Early Redemption Right

The Program has the right to call Notes for redemption at any time upon sixty (60) days written notice. In such event, interest will be paid to the date of redemption.

Withdrawal and Early Withdrawal Penalties

Withdrawals from Fixed and Adjustable Rate Term Notes of interest accrued and added to principal during the current term, and also withdrawals of principal and/or interest from Mission Market Fund Notes (subject to monthly withdrawal limit), may be made at any time without penalty, and will normally be paid to the Investor on demand provided, however, that the Program reserves the right to require the Investor to provide up to thirty (30) days written notice of any intended withdrawal before such withdrawal is made.

The Program is not required to redeem all or part of any Fixed or Adjustable Rate Term Note prior to its maturity date. As a matter of policy, the Program may redeem Fixed and Adjustable Rate Term Notes prior to the maturity date at the request of Investors upon a showing of need. When the Program agrees to redeem a Fixed or Adjustable Rate Term Note prior to the maturity date, early withdrawal penalties are applied as follows:

Term of Note	Penalty (at current interest rate at date of redemption)
6 months	20 days interest
12 months	30 days interest
24 months	45 days interest
36 months	60 days interest
48 months	75 days interest
60 months	90 days interest

Except for the terms stated above, the penalty for any other term will be the same as the penalty for the next lowest term stated above (e.g., a 15 month Note will have the same penalty as a 12 month Note). Management may consider any extenuating circumstances which may force an investor to request an early withdrawal and may waive some or all of any early withdrawal penalty. In no event, however, will any early withdrawal penalty be applied in the case of a redemption of a Note occurring upon or as a result of the death of the Investor in whose name such Note was issued.

In addition, in the event that the balance of a Note would, upon a withdrawal or partial redemption, fall below $100.00, the balance of such Note will be fully redeemed without notice to the Investor.

Excess Monthly Withdrawal Service Fee (Mission Market Fund Notes Only)

In the case of Mission Market Fund Notes, Investors may make up to three (3) monthly withdrawals without any service fee. Excess monthly withdrawals beyond three (3) per month are subject to a service fee of $50.00 per excess monthly withdrawal.

Unsecured General Obligation Status of Notes

The Notes are unsecured and of equal priority with all other current indebtedness of the Program. However, the Program reserves the right to issue future obligations, or obtain a line or lines of credit, secured by a first lien on its assets in an amount not to exceed ten percent (10%) of the tangible assets of the Program (total assets less intangible assets as defined by U.S. GAAP).

Additional Information

The Program reserves the right at any time to discontinue offering any of the Notes described herein without the need to supplement this Offering Circular. The Program also reserves the right at any time to offer additional Notes having terms different than the terms of the Notes described in this Offering Circular. The Notes are non-negotiable and may be assigned only upon the Program’s written consent.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The primary means for marketing the Notes will be through promotional brochures and Offering Circulars distributed to congregations and individual Presbyterian members. Promotional materials will also be published in national and regional publications of PCUSA and on the Program's homepage on the Internet (<http://pilp.pcusa.org>). The Program will also make the Offering Circular and investment application form available on its Internet website and by e-mail. In addition, promotional materials will be distributed at church conferences, national and regional meetings, retreats and seminars. A representative for the Program may discuss the nature and purpose of the Program's work at national or regional meetings or at PCUSA congregational services or gatherings. Each Investor will be provided a copy of the Offering Circular prior to the Investor's purchase of Notes. No offers to purchase will be accepted prior to the time that an Investor has executed an Account Information form acknowledging that they received a current Offering Circular. All sales are made by directors, officers and/or employees of the Program. No underwriting or selling agreements exist, and no direct or indirect remuneration will be paid to any person in connection with the offer and sale of Notes. Notes will be offered and sold only to Investors. (See definition of "Investor" on page 5 of this Offering Circular).

TAX ASPECTS

Investors will not receive a charitable deduction upon the purchase of a Note. The interest payable on the Notes will be taxable as ordinary income to the Investor in the year it is paid or accrued, regardless of whether it is actually paid out to the Investor. If interest is accrued over the life of the Note and paid at the maturity date, the Investor must report such interest as income on their federal and state income tax returns as it accrues. Transferability of the Notes is limited and it is unlikely that there would be a sale or exchange of a Note. Upon a transfer, however, the seller would generally report as either a short-term or long-term gain or loss, depending upon the length of time held, the gain or loss being equal to the difference between the purchase price and the amount received upon sale or exchange, less accrued interest. Purchasers who hold Notes until their maturity will not be taxed on the return of the principal purchase price or on previously accrued and taxed interest. Any excess will be interest income taxable in the year of maturity.

An individual Investor (or Investor and spouse together) who has (have) invested or loaned more than $250,000 in aggregate with or to the Program and other PCUSA Related Entities or Church Organizations may be deemed to receive additional taxable interest under Section 7872 of the Internal Revenue Code. Investors are encouraged to consult with their own tax advisors.

The Program will notify Investors of interest earned on Notes by sending them IRS Form 1099 by January 31st of each year. Investors who do not provide the Program with their correct social security number or Federal tax identification number will be subject to backup withholding of 24% on interest earned as required by law.

Investors who choose to contribute interest earned to the Program will also be provided with a letter from the Program indicating the amounts and dates of such contributions. Such contributions will qualify as charitable contributions for federal income tax purposes.

LITIGATION AND OTHER MATERIAL TRANSACTIONS

The Board of Directors and management of the Program are not aware of any action, proceeding, inquiry, or investigation at law or in equity, before any court or public agency, board or body present, pending or, to the knowledge of the Program, threatened against it (i) affecting the existence of the Program, (ii) seeking to prohibit, restrain or enjoin the issuance and sale of Notes, (iii) in any way contesting or affecting the validity or enforceability of the Notes, or (iv) in which an adverse determination would have an adverse material impact on the Program. Furthermore, the Board of Directors and management of the Program are not aware of any actual or threatened litigation involving any director or officer of the Program pertaining to their duties as a director or officer of the Program. In addition, there have been no material transactions between the Program and any director or officer of the Program during the three-year period immediately preceding the date of this Offering Circular.

All transactions, including those with Affiliates of the Program, in which any director or officer has a direct or indirect financial interest or control interest, or with respect to which a director or officer serves as a director, officer, member, or key employee, are made or entered into on terms that are no less favorable to the Program than those that the Program could obtain from an independent, unaffiliated third party or otherwise are appropriate under the circumstances to carry out the religious purposes of the Program. A majority of the independent, disinterested members of the Program's Board of Directors must approve such transactions. For this purpose, an Affiliate of the Program is an entity that controls, is controlled by, or under common control with the Program.

Report of Independent Auditor

To the Board of Directors
Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) Investment and Loan Program, Inc.
Louisville, Kentucky

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) Investment and Loan Program, Inc. (the “Program”) which comprise the statements of financial position as of December 31, 2024 and 2023, and the related statements of activities and changes in net assets, and cash flows for the years ended December 31, 2024, 2023, and 2022, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Program as of December 31, 2024 and 2023, and the change in its net assets and its cash flows for the years ended December 31, 2024, 2023, and 2022, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor’s Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Program and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Prior Period Financial Statements

The financial statements as of December 31, 2022, were audited by MCM CPAs & Advisors LLP, which was acquired by Cherry Bekaert LLP as of October 31, 2023 and whose report dated March 11, 2023, expressed an unmodified opinion on those statements.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Program’s ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditor’s Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor’s report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and, therefore, is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Program's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Program's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audits.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH (U.S.A.) INVESTMENT AND LOAN PROGRAM, INC.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

DECEMBER 31, 2024, 2023, AND 2022

Note 1—Nature of organization and operations

The Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) Investment and Loan Program, Inc. (the “Program”) was authorized by the 207th General Assembly (the “Church”) of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) (the “Denomination”) in 1995. The Program’s primary purpose is to augment the church development activities of the Church. These activities include the issuance of denominational account receipts, notes, or other financial instruments approved by its Board of Directors in order to fund loans for the mission of the Church; the establishment of underwriting standards and loan criteria for loans to congregations, governing bodies and their validated ministries, and theological and educational institutions related to the Denomination to enable them to acquire or improve real property; the training and orientation of volunteers, committees, employees, and others within Synods and Presbyteries who have responsibilities related to work of the Program; accounting and reporting with respect to all of the foregoing; and such other mission, finance and related services as the Presbyterian Mission Agency Board (formerly known as the General Assembly Mission Council) may direct or approve.

The Program was incorporated in Pennsylvania on July 31, 1995, as a nonprofit religious membership organization and is tax exempt under Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code (“IRC”) of 1986, as amended. As a nonprofit corporation, the Program does not have any shareholders. Its sole member is the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), A Corporation (“PC (U.S.A.)”).

Note 2—Summary of significant accounting policies

Basis of Accounting – The financial statements of the Program have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“U.S. GAAP”). The Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) Accounting Standards Codification (“ASC”) is the sole source of authoritative U.S. GAAP.

Use of Estimates – To prepare financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP, management makes estimates and assumptions based on available information. These estimates and assumptions affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and the disclosures provided, and future results could differ.

The determination of the adequacy of the allowance for credit losses is based on estimates particularly susceptible to significant changes in the economic environment and market conditions. While management uses available information to recognize losses on loans, future additions to the allowance may be necessary based on changes in local economic conditions.

Cash Flows – Cash, cash equivalents, and restricted cash include cash in banks and liquid investments. Net cash flows are reported for demand notes, money market funds, and certificates of deposit with maturities less than 90 days.

Investments – Securities are carried at fair value. Investments consist principally of money market funds, equity securities, mutual funds, fixed income bonds, alternative investments, and certificates of deposit with other financial institutions, which generally mature within three years. These investments could also include variable rate demand notes and discounted commercial paper with original terms of 13 months or less. Interest and dividends on investments are included in interest income. Realized and unrealized gains and losses are included in nonoperating activities.

Loans – Loans that management has the intent and ability to hold for the foreseeable future or until maturity or payoff are reported at the principal balance outstanding, net of allowance for credit losses. Interest income is accrued on the unpaid principal balance.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH (U.S.A.) INVESTMENT AND LOAN PROGRAM, INC.
NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Interest income on loans is discontinued on loans management has determined will incur loss. Nonaccrual determination is made by management of the Program. Past due status is based on the contractual terms of the loan. Loans are placed on nonaccrual status or charged-off at an earlier date if collection of principal or interest is considered doubtful.

All interest accrued but not received for loans placed on nonaccrual status is reversed against interest income. Interest received on such loans is accounted for on the cash-basis or cost-recovery method, until qualifying for return to accrual status. Loans are returned to accrual status when all the principal and interest amounts contractually due are brought current and future payments are reasonably assured.

Allowance for Credit Losses – The allowance for credit losses is a valuation account that is deducted from the loans' amortized cost basis to present the net amount expected to be collected on the loans. Loans are charged off against the allowance when management believes the uncollectability of a loan balance is confirmed. Expected recoveries do not exceed the aggregate of amounts previously charged off and expected to be charged-off.

The allowance for credit losses is based upon management's estimate of the amount needed to maintain the allowance for credit losses at an adequate level to cover known and inherent risk of loss in the loan portfolio. Management estimates the allowance for credit losses using relevant available information, from internal and external sources, relating to past events, current economic conditions, and reasonable and supportable forecasts. Adjustments to historical loss information are made for differences in current loan-specific risk characteristics, such as evaluations of facts and issues related to specific loans, management's ongoing review and grading of the loan portfolio, consideration of the Program's historical loan loss and delinquency experience on each portfolio category, trends in past due and nonperforming loans, changes in size and character of the loan portfolio, concentrations of loans to specific borrowers or industries, existing economic conditions, the fair value of the underlying collateral, and other qualitative factors which could affect potential credit losses.

The allowance for credit losses is measured on a collective (pool) basis when similar risk characteristics exist. The Program segments the loan portfolio into broad categories with similar risk elements for the purposes of computing the allowance for credit losses and measures the allowance for credit losses using the weighted-average remaining maturity ("WARM") methodology. Those categories and their specific risks are described below.

Church Loans – Risks common to church loans are membership loss, denominational concerns, economic conditions, fund raising collection declines, significant change in leadership, guarantor strength and project overruns. Church real estate collateral is considered special use assets and could be more challenging to liquidate in a declining economic environment.

PC (U.S.A.)-Related Organization Loans – Risks common to PC (U.S.A.)-related organization loans are changes in market demand for services offered by the borrower, changes in cash flow, general economic conditions, declines in real estate values, and lack of suitable alternative use of property. Loans in this category typically do not require a guaranty.

Presbytery Loans – Risks common to presbytery loans are membership loss, denominational concerns, economic conditions, and property management of presbytery real estate property under its care.

Loans that do not share risk characteristics are evaluated on an individual basis. Loans evaluated individually are not also included in the collective evaluation.

Expected credit losses on loans analyzed individually are based on the present value of cash flows expected to be collected. As of December 31, 2024, 2023, and 2022, all loans were included in the collective evaluation.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH (U.S.A.) INVESTMENT AND LOAN PROGRAM, INC.
NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Because each of the criteria used is subject to change, the allocation of the allowance for credit losses is made for analytical purposes and is not necessarily indicative of the trend of future loan losses in any particular loan category. While management uses the best information available to make evaluations, future adjustments may be necessary if economic and other conditions differ substantially from the assumptions used.

Occasionally the Program modifies loans to borrowers in financial distress by providing concessions to a borrower. Loans are reported as modified loans when the Program grants a concession to a borrower experiencing financial difficulties that it would not otherwise consider. Examples of such concessions include forgiveness of principal or accrued interest, extending the maturity date(s), or providing a lower interest rate than would be normally available for a transaction of similar risk. The allowance for credit losses on modified loans is determined using the same method as all other loans held for discounted cash flow method. When the value of a concession is measured using the discounted cash flow method the allowance for credit losses is determined by discounting the expected future cash flows at the original interest rate of the loan.

Loans are made to various member congregations, governing bodies, and other Denomination related organizations. Prior to entering into the loan relationship, each loan is evaluated as to its repayment ability through a careful analysis of cash flow generation sufficient to service debt. Secured loans provide a secondary source of repayment through liquidation of collateral, which generally consists of real estate. Unsecured loans are reliant on the cash flows of the borrower, co-borrower, and/or guarantor.

Loan Commitment and Related Financial Instruments – Financial instruments include commitments to make loans which meet customer-financing needs. The face amount for these items represents the exposure to loss, before considering customer collateral or ability to repay. Such financial instruments are recorded when they are funded.

Concentration of Credit Risks – The Program maintains cash, liquid investments, interest bearing deposits, and investments with various financial institutions. At times, such items may be in excess of the Federal Deposit Insurance Company insurance level of up to $250,000. Total uninsured cash balances at December 31, 2024 and 2023 were $2,338,743 and $2,363,632, respectively. The Program also holds certain fixed income bonds. At year-end 2024 and 2023, there were no holdings of securities of any one issuer in an amount greater than 10% of net assets. Additionally, the Program's loan portfolio is primarily for Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) congregations, governing bodies, theological institutions, and educational institutions related to Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) to enable them to acquire or improve real property.

Loss Contingencies – Loss contingencies, including claims and legal actions arising in the ordinary course of business, are recorded as liabilities when the likelihood of loss is probable, and an amount or range of loss can be reasonably estimated. Management does not believe there are currently such matters that will have a material effect on the financial statements.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments – Fair values of financial instruments are estimated using relevant market information and other assumptions. Fair value estimates involve uncertainties and matters of significant judgment regarding interest rates, credit risk, prepayments, and other factors, especially in the absence of broad markets for particular items. Changes in assumptions or in market conditions could significantly affect the estimates.

Income Taxes – The Program is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the IRC. Due to its tax-exempt status, the Program is not required to file federal or state tax returns. Accordingly, no provision for income taxes has been made in the financial statements.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH (U.S.A.) INVESTMENT AND LOAN PROGRAM, INC.
NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Revenues – Gifts and Contributions: Gifts and contribution revenue are recorded when received, based on the existence or absence of donor restrictions. The Program reports information regarding its financial position and activities according to the following net asset classifications:

Net Assets Without Donor Restrictions – Net assets that are not subject to donor-imposed restrictions and may be expended for any purpose in performing the primary objectives of the Program. These net assets may be used at the discretion of the Program’s management and the Board of Directors.

Net Assets with Donor Restrictions – Net assets subject to stipulations imposed by donors and grantors. Some donor restrictions are temporary in nature; those restrictions will be met by action of the Program or by the passage of time. Other donor restrictions are perpetual in nature, whereby the donor has stipulated the funds must be maintained in perpetuity. The Program had no net assets with donor restrictions as of December 31, 2024, 2023, or 2022.

Leases – The Program determines if an arrangement is a lease at the inception of the contract. A contract is or contains a lease if the contract conveys a right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration. Lease right-of-use (“ROU”) assets and lease liabilities are recognized at the lease commencement date based on the present value of the lease payments over the lease term, which is determined as the noncancelable period, including periods in which renewal options are reasonably certain of being exercised. The lease liabilities are measured by discounting future lease payments using the risk-free rate at the commencement date over a similar term, unless the implicit rate is readily determinable. The ROU assets also include adjustments related to prepaid or deferred lease payments and lease incentives if applicable. Lease expense for operating lease payments is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

For short-term leases, (that is a lease that, at the commencement date, has a lease term of 12 months or less and does not include an option to purchase the underlying asset that the Program is reasonably certain to exercise) an ROU asset and lease liability is not recognized, instead lease payments are recognized in the income statement on a straight-line basis over the lease term and any variable lease payments are recognized when the obligation for those payments are incurred.

Operating leases are included in operating lease ROU assets and operating lease liabilities (current and noncurrent) in the accompanying statements of financial position.

Funds Held for Others – Funds held for others consist of funds received from mortgage and donation grant repayments. These funds are available in the form of a grant to certain churches for construction, renovation, site purchase, or building purchase projects in conjunction with an approved loan from the Program. These funds are held in restricted cash and investments at December 31, 2024.

Board-Designated Funds – In November 2024, the Board of Directors approved the establishment of a Board-designated fund. The purpose of the fund is to segregate a portion of the surplus for future investments in capital assets and technology. During the year ended December 31, 2024, $500,000 were transferred from the Program’s accumulated surplus to board-designated funds.

Subsequent Events – Subsequent events for the Program have been considered through March 4, 2025 which represents the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

There were no loans delinquent more than 90 days past due and still accruing and no nonaccrual loans at year-end 2024 or 2023. There were no loans charged off during the three years in the period ended December 31, 2024.

There were no loans individually evaluated for impairment during the year ended December 31, 2022. As such, there were no specific allocations, no amounts were charged off during the year, and no interest income was recognized or received for loans individually evaluated for impairment in 2022.

Loan Modifications:

Occasionally, the Program modifies loans to borrowers in financial distress by providing a term extension, interest rate reduction, or a change in the payment structure of the note. When principal forgiveness is provided, the amount of forgiveness is charged off against the allowance for credit losses.

Loans by Risk Category:

The Program categorizes loans into risk categories based on relevant information about the ability of borrowers to service their debt such as: current financial information, historical payment experience, credit documentation, public information, and current economic trends, among other factors. The Program analyzes loans individually by classifying the loans as to credit risk. This analysis is performed on an accrual basis. The Program uses the following definitions for risk ratings:

Special Mention – Loans classified as special mention have a potential weakness that deserves management’s close attention. If left uncorrected, these potential weaknesses may result in deterioration of the repayment prospects for the loan or of the institution’s credit position at some future date.

Substandard – Loans classified as substandard are inadequately protected by the current net worth and paying capacity of the obligor or of the collateral pledged, if any. Loans so classified have a well-defined weakness or weaknesses that jeopardize the liquidation of the debt. They are characterized by the distinct possibility that the institution will sustain some loss if the deficiencies are not corrected.

Doubtful – Loans classified as doubtful have all the weaknesses inherent in those classified as substandard, with the added characteristic that the weaknesses make collection or liquidation in full, on the basis of currently existing facts, conditions, and values, highly questionable and improbable.

Loans not meeting the criteria above that are analyzed individually as part of the above described process are considered to be pass rated loans.

Based on the most recent analysis performed, the risk category of loans by class of loans is as follows:

December 31, 2024	Pass	Special Mention	Substandard	Doubtful	Total
Church loans	$ 81,579,833	$ 4,763,246	$ -	$ -	$ 86,343,079

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH (U.S.A.) INVESTMENT AND LOAN PROGRAM, INC.
NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

DECEMBER 31, 2024, 2023, AND 2022

Note 5—Fair value

Fair value is the exchange price that would be received for an asset or paid to transfer a liability in the principal or most advantageous market for the asset or liability in an orderly transaction between market participants on the measurement date. There are three levels or inputs that may be used to measure fair values:

Level 1 – Quoted prices (unadjusted) for identical assets or liabilities in active markets that the entity has the ability to access as of the measurement date.

Level 2 – Significant other observable inputs other than Level 1 prices such as quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities; quoted prices in markets that are not active; or other inputs that are observable or can be corroborated by observable market data.

Level 3 – Significant unobservable inputs that reflect a reporting entity's own assumptions about the assumptions that market participants would use in pricing an asset or liability.

The Program uses the following methods and significant assumptions to estimate fair value:

Money market funds are valued based on quoted market prices (Level 1). Investments also include certificates of deposits with financial institutions. Fair values are estimated to approximate deposit account balances, payable on demand, as no discounts for credit quality or liquidity were determined to be applicable (Level 2).

The fair values of debt investments that are readily marketable are determined by obtaining quoted market prices of similar securities with similar due dates (U.S. Treasury) (Level 2 inputs). The fair values of other debt instruments (U.S. federal agencies and corporate bonds) are determined by obtaining valuations from third parties based on matrix pricing, which is a mathematical technique widely used in the industry to value debt securities without relying exclusively on quoted prices for the specific securities but rather by relying on the securities' relationship to other benchmark quoted securities (Level 2 inputs).

Also included in other investments are hedge funds, private credit funds, private equity funds, and real estate investment trusts ("REITs") for which readily marketable pricing is not necessarily available. The alternative investments may include short sales on securities and trading in futures contracts, options, foreign currency contracts, other derivative instruments, private equity, and real estate investments. Management has determined the net asset value ("NAV") is an appropriate estimate of the fair value of these investments at December 31, 2024 and 2023, as a practical expedient. Investments that are measured at fair value using NAV per share as a practical expedient are not classified in the fair value hierarchy.

The components of the individual investments within these funds are not readily determinable. The estimated fair value is based on valuations provided by the external investment managers. Program management believes the carrying amount of these financial instruments, $307,937 and $128,798 at December 31, 2024 and 2023, respectively, is a reasonable estimate of fair value. Because these investments are not readily marketable, their estimated value is subject to uncertainty and, therefore, may differ from the value that would have been used had a ready market for such investments existed. Such differences could be material.

Note 6—Notes and denominational accounts

The Program offers notes and denominational accounts which are term and demand unsecured debt obligations. The denominational accounts consist of interest bearing, short and intermediate term debt obligations of the Program held by church organizations.

Notes Payable to Investors:

The Program has received $54,661,709 and $56,925,078 from individual investors as of year-end 2024 and 2023. Interest rates ranged from .45% to 4.41% for fixed rate notes and from 1.24% to 2.28% for variable rate notes at December 31, 2024. Interest rates ranged from .45% to 4.41% for fixed rate notes and from 1.19% to 2.23% for variable rate notes at December 31, 2023.

New Covenant Trust Company (a subsidiary of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) Foundation) holds a Mission Market Fund with a balance of $1,356,736 and $1,831,220 at December, 31, 2024 and 2023, respectively.

The Program has made a general offering of its fixed and adjustable rate term and demand debt securities (“Notes”) throughout the 50 states, the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico. The general offering is renewed as required in the various jurisdictions on an annual basis. The offering amount may be issued during each offering period in any one or more of the types of Notes, subject to any limitations thereon, as described in the Program’s Offering Circular for such offering period.

The Program adheres to guidelines established by the North American Securities Administrators Association (“NASAA”) in the statement of policy regarding church extension fund securities related to the general offering of the Notes to investors. The statement of policy provides financial guidelines to states and provinces related to the selling of these notes. The guidelines require the Program to maintain a liquidity ratio (cash, cash equivalents, short-term investments, and unused portions of lines of credit to outstanding notes payable) of at least 8% (with lines of credit not exceeding 2%), a capital adequacy ratio (net assets without donor restrictions to total assets) of at least 5%, coverage ratio of available cash (normal operating activities, liquid assets, loan principal repayment, sale of notes, and other funding sources) as compared to cash redemptions of notes exclusive of denominational accounts of at least one to one (1:1), no excessive loan delinquencies (less than 10%), positive change in net assets, less nonrecurring or extraordinary item, for at least three of the last five years, and limits senior secured debt to a maximum of 10% of total assets. As of December 31, 2024, the Program is in compliance with the guideline requirements.

Denominational Accounts:

The Program has received commitments to invest from PC (U.S.A.) and the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) Foundation (the “Foundation”) since June 1999. The commitments with PC (U.S.A.) and the Foundation were renewed in 2024 and 2019, respectively, and total $20,000,000. The commitments run for 5 years and 10 years, respectively, and are invested in increments of $500,000 by the entities when requested by the Program. The term of the investment can be from six months to five years and is decided by the entity. Upon maturity of any individual investment, and if within the period covered by a commitment to invest, the Program can request that the investment renew for a term selected by the entity.

The current commitments, effective May 1, 2024 and May 1, 2019, from PC (U.S.A.) and the Foundation, respectively, are commitments to invest up to $10,000,000 each, over a 5-year period and a 10-year period, respectively, in short and intermediate term denominational accounts. Currently $10,000,000 of the PC (U.S.A.) commitment and $8,000,000 of the Foundation commitment are in denominational accounts with the Program. Of these denominational accounts, $7,559,466 from the PC (U.S.A.) and $7,000,000 from the Foundation mature in 2025.

Note 7—Operating leases

The Program has applied the requirements of ASU 2016-02, Leases (Topic 842) and all subsequent ASUs that modified Topic 842. The Program’s lease agreement in which Topic 842 has been applied is for an office space lease with a related party. The Program has one noncancelable operating lease for its Louisville office space. For operating leases, the lease liability is recorded at the present value of the unpaid lease payments discounted at the discount rate for the lease established at the commencement date. Regarding the discount rate, the Program utilized the risk-free rate at the commencement date over a similar term. The ROU assets represent the Program’s right to use an underlying asset for the lease term. The ROU assets are measured at the commencement date as the amount of the initial lease liability, adjusted for lease payments made to the lessor.

The following table summarizes the activity of the Program’s operating ROU asset during the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023:

	2024	2023

The following table summarizes the maturity of the remaining operating lease liability as of December 31, 2024:

Upon approval of the loan applications, the Program issues 180-day letters of commitment to fund future loans. As of December 31, 2024, there were four variable rate commitments outstanding in the amount of $1,679,440. Management expects that these loans will be closed before these commitments expire. As of December 31, 2024, there were $7,597,410 of undisbursed construction loan advances. As of December 31, 2023, there were five rate commitments outstanding in the amount of $2,106,368 and $9,364,713 of undisbursed construction loan advances.

Note 9—Employee benefits

The Program participates in the benefits plan of Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), which is a “church plan” administered by the Board of Pensions of Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.). The benefits plan provides pension, death, disability and medical coverage. As of December 31, 2024 and 2023, the funded status of the Plan was 172% and 157%, respectively. The Program has no interest in either the net assets, or the accumulated benefit obligations of the plan. The Program pays a minimum of 90% of the cost of the benefits plan incurred for its employees which constitutes less than 5% of total contributions to the plan for each of the three years presented. Employees have the option to purchase additional supplemental coverage. There are no collective bargaining agreements in place that require contributions to the Pension Plan of Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.). The Employer Identification Number of the Pension Plan of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) is 23-1352040.

A retirement savings plan is available to employees whereby participants may contribute up to 20% of their compensation, not to exceed government regulated maximum limits.

In addition, the Program makes contributions to a separate tax deferred account designed to provide equalization of the impact of tax differences between clergy and exempt lay personnel. The Program pays an amount based upon a calculation of historical tax differences and salary ranges.

The Program’s expense for the plan was:

PC (U.S.A.) is the sole member of the Program and provides administrative support to the Program. For the years ended 2024, 2023, and 2022, the Program expensed $272,988, $265,032, and $257,316, respectively, for these services and are included in general and administrative expenses on the statements of activities and changes in net assets.

The Program also paid PC (U.S.A.) $80,848, $80,848, and $73,010 in 2024, 2023, and 2022, respectively, for office space. The current lease was entered into on January 1, 2023 for the period from January 1, 2023 to December 31, 2027 (see Note 7). The lease which was effective in 2022 was entered into on January 23, 2019 for the period from January 1, 2019 to December 31, 2022.

This is referred to as backup withholding.

You are subject to backup withholding if:

- (1) You fail to provide the Program with your taxpayer identification number, or
